Pet Policy

- A daily surcharge of €15.00 applies for one dog or €25.00 for two dogs.
- Only small and medium-small dogs (up to 15 kg) are allowed.
- Only one dog is permitted per room, except for very small dogs (around 3 kg each), for which up to two dogs per room are allowed (in this case, with a €25.00 daily surcharge).
- Guide dogs are exempt from any size restrictions.
- The presence of pets must be communicated at the time of booking.
- DEDICATED BREAKFAST AREA: For hygiene regulations, dogs are not allowed inside the breakfast room. However, they may stay in the bar-lounge area, where owners can have breakfast at the tables provided. Therefore, dog owners should first go to the breakfast room (without their dog) to get their food and then enjoy their breakfast in the bar-lounge area, where they can keep their furry friend with them.
- It is forbidden to take food from the breakfast room for the dog or to use breakfast room dishes to feed the dog.
- Dogs are not allowed in the pool area to ensure maximum hygiene and tranquility for all guests.
- Dogs must not be left loose inside the hotel; they must always be accompanied and kept on a leash.
- Pets may be left alone in the room only after informing the reception in advance and placing the "Do Not Disturb" sign to prevent cleaning staff from entering.
- The towels provided in the rooms must not be used to wash the dog.
- Any damage caused by the pet to other guests must be fully covered and compensated by its owner.
